Today in Cyprus

Cyprus independence in Cyprus lasted 22 years.

After 1960 Cyprus has been divided into two parts: the north is controlled by Turkey and the south is controlled by the Greek Cypriots.

The British own a total of 24000 acres of land in the island which are not allowed to exist.

Region	Area (km²)
North	3350
South	9250
British Sovereign Base Areas	3490

Two women are standing at the front of the room. One is pointing towards the screen while the other stands by a podium.

An audience of students is seated in the foreground, facing the stage area where the presentation is taking place.

Today in Cyprus

English occupation in Cyprus lasted 82 years:

- After 1960 Cyprus was free of the British however they demanded a part of Cyprus in the form of military bases.
- The British own a total of 254km<sup>2</sup> of land on our island, which we are not allowed to visit.

Modern history of Cyprus

- There was a Turkish invasion that began on 20 July 1974, which went on for two phases over the next month.
- Because of it Cyprus was left divided.

A group of students is seated in orange chairs, facing a stage area. Two women are standing at a podium on the stage, presenting. A long table with a white tablecloth is set up in front of the stage, covered with various food items and drinks. A projector screen displays a slide about the modern history of Cyprus, featuring a map and bullet points. The room has large windows on the left and a door on the right. A fire extinguisher is visible near the stage entrance.

Period of English occupation in Cyprus

Between the years 1878-1960 Cyprus was under the dominion of the British Empire.

How well are human rights defended in my country?

Colegiul Național „Elena Cuza”
Craiova, Romania

Universal Declaration of Human Rights

- The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) is a milestone document in the history of human rights.
- Drafted by representatives with different legal and cultural backgrounds from a majority of the world, the Declaration was proclaimed by the United Nations General Assembly in Paris on 10 December 1948, as a common standard of achievement for all peoples and all nations.
- It has since been translated into over 500 languages.
- The UDHR is widely recognized as having inspired, and paved the way, for the adoption of numerous treaties, human rights treaties, applied today at a comprehensive level at global and regional levels.

Human rights in Romania

- Human rights in Romania are generally considered to be "good" compared to other countries in the region.
- In 2004, Romania joined the European Union.
- Romania is a member of the Council of Europe.
- Romania is a member of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe.

Human rights in Romania

- Human rights in Romania are generally considered to be "good" compared to other countries in the region.
- However, there are still some issues, such as corruption and political instability.

To Romania, just as to the European Union, observance of human rights is a foreign policy priority. Under the Constitution, Romania is a democratic and social state ruled by law. In the spirit of the Romanian people's democratic traditions and of the December 1989 Revolution, Romania cherishes and guarantees, as supreme values, human dignity, civil rights and freedoms, the free development of human personality, justice and political pluralism.
